To whom it may concern,

I strongly recommend Anders Michael Nielsen for translation projects involving Swedish and Danish. As a PR and film production company we are often in the need of translations and we will continue to work with him as long as he is available to us.

Anders does an excellent job as a translator. When dealing with short-term projects communication is very important which I must say Anders handles to perfection. He is available, thorough and fast.

Anders is always willing to offer his assistance and has earned a great reputation among the colleagues at Tally-Ho, as well as our costumers. He would be an asset to any employer and I recommend him for any endeavor he chooses to pursue.

Yours truly,

Mathias Rosberg
Head of Productions
